ANDERSON IS FOUND GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Ten Killed In Wreck Of Two Fast Trains

REAR END CRASH CAUSED BY DENSE FOG EARLY TODAY

St. Louis Express Smashes
Into Rear Of Washington Flyer In Fog.

MANY PASSENGERS INJURED IN CRASH

Wreckage Near Monmouth,
New Jersey, Is Strewn
On All Sides.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 12.—A number of persons were killed—possibly ten, some eye witnesses said, in the wreck of two fast Pennsylvania trains, the Mercantile Express, running from St. Louis to New York and the Washington-New York Express, two miles west of Monmouth Junction, N. J., early today.

The St. Louis train smashed into the rear end of the Washington flyer in a dense fog.

The rear car of the Washington Express was completely telescoped. There were 19 persons in it when the accident occurred, eye witnesses said.

Ten of the 19 passengers were buried in the debris following the impact, which was terrific, the eye witnesses said. They asserted that the victims were so tangled in the wreckage that they could not possibly have escaped with their lives.

All the windows in the rear car of the Washington train were smashed into pieces. Wreckage was strewn on all sides.

Dozen Injured

Officers and nurses arriving from Jersey City, New Brunswick and Trenton immediately went to work in caring for the injured.

How many were hurt, the first eye witnesses to arrive here could not say definitely, but they estimated the number at a dozen at least.

Four of the 19 passengers who were in the rear car are known to have escaped. They were badly shaken up.

The collision occurred near signal tower, No. 431, two miles west of Monmouth Junction.

The Washington-New York Express consisted of three mail cars, two coaches and three sleepers. The engineer is J. H. Moore, and the conductor, C. S. Neal.

The St. Louis-New York train was composed of ten cars, five of them mail cars, one private car, three sleepers and one coach.

Trains that passed near the scene of the wreck were delayed. There are four tracks at the scene. The debris blocked both east bound tracks and one set of west bound rails. Workmen were busy clearing away the wreckage.

CURBING CRIME JOB FOR VETS HE SAYS

Dr. Shelton, In Armistice Day Address, Says Country Is Suffering From a Sickly, Maudlin Sentimentalism.

Selecting as his subject "Democracy on Trial," Dr. George Shelton, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, addressed an attentive and large crowd which had gathered at the Methodist church Wednesday night to hear him deliver the Armistice day address.

Dr. Shelton included in his speech a plea for funds with which the Legion might build a home. "In this manner," he stated, "we will be able to repay part of what we owe to these former soldiers for the sacrifices they made in the war."

Continuing Dr. Shelton declared that the work of the soldiers now is to help eliminate the lawlessness that is rampant throughout the country. "The country is suffering from a sickly maudlin sentimentalism," he went on, "that calls for the help of every honest citizen in the country to aid in its suppression."

"Dr. Shelton believes, however, that the United States should assume its part in the world court as this is the most logical effort that has been made by the powers towards a solution of the problems that are worrying the world."

Following the singing of several popular war time pieces by the audience Dr. Shelton was introduced by Dr. P. H. Gordon. Dr. H. K. Yaggi was chairman of the meeting.

This public service followed the annual Armistice day banquet in American Legion rooms for ex-service men.

Officials Inspect Plant, And Order More Switching Facilities.

Officers of the American Steel & Wire Co. from Chicago, Cleveland and Pittsburg were here Wednesday for the semi-annual inspection of the local plant.

The inspectors were very well satisfied with the conditions they found at the plant and granted a number of improvements to be made, among which was the laying of 1,500 additional feet of railroad for switching facilities. This work will be started at once. At the present time the plant is running full on day turn and almost to capacity on night turn.

The officials here yesterday were William B. Palmer, J. S. Keeff, Frank Baackes, H. A. Barren, J. Waldeck, Harvey Baldwin, E. E. Stone, A. H. Gary, E. Boley, L. J. Gray, J. A. Copely, S. W. Tener, C. F. Blackmer, W. L. Hayes and G. H. Peters.

GIRLS RUN AWAY FROM SCHOOL TO AVOID SCOLDING

Columbiana, Nov. 12.—Dorothy Koch, 12, daughter of Charles Koch of Youngstown, who resides with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch, in Columbiana, and Mary Coleman, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coleman, Elm st., ran away from home Wednesday morning because it is said, they were afraid to appear before the school superintendent to answer to a charge of passing notes in school.

The girls were picked up by a salesmen who took them in his auto to Canfield. Becoming suspicious, the man noted the Koch girl's name in her school book and he went into a store to telephone to her parents. When he returned to his car the girls had fled.

The Koch girl had told the man they were on their way to visit her grandmother in Cleveland. Four auto loads of Columbian people started on the search and Thursday morning the grandmother, Mrs. Gibson, of Cleveland, reported that the girls had arrived at her home.

Motors Strike Back At The Bears

New York, Nov. 12.—Motor stocks "struck back" at the Bears when the gong sounded for the opening of the stock market today. Shorts in DuPont and General Motors were hard pressed when DuPont opened 23 points above the previous close and nearly 40 points above yesterday's low price.

General Motors opened at 145, against Wednesday's low price at 133 1/4. Hudson at 117 1/2; against 109 1/2 and Chrysler at 23 1/2, up 10 points from the close and 18 points from yesterday's low.

Directors of the General Motors corporation will declare an extra cash dividend today, variously estimated at from $2 to $5 a share, bringing total payments to stockholders this year to $10 to $12 a share.

When the market opened at midnight, a Ford touring car drove up and three young men alighted. All carried revolvers, it is alleged, and they extracted $25, a gold watch and a knife from Jennings' pockets. The barber made note of the auto license as the boys drove away and Wednesday Herbert Whitehead, owner and driver of the car was arrested.

Whitehead confessed, officials say, and implicated his companions, Joe Getz and Vincent McFadden. All three were placed in jail to await trial hearing late today. They are expected to be bound over to the probate court.

Clyde Reich Sues B. & O. For Injuries; Auto Strikes Train.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—The Baltimore and Ohio railroad faced two suits aggregating $45,000 which were filed in federal court today.

One, filed by Clyde R. Reich, of Salem, asked $20,000 for injuries received by the plaintiff when his auto collided with a freight train at a grade crossing near Warren. He charged there were no signs or lights of warning at the crossing.

Nicholas G. Rossi, administrator for Anthony Desantis' estate asked $25,000 in behalf of the estate of the deceased who was killed when his automobile collided with a B. & O. train at Warren August 15. He charged the trainmen gave no warning of the approach of the cars.

The girls were picked up by a salesmen who took them in his auto to Canfield. Becoming suspicious, the man noted the Koch girl's name in her school book and he went into a store to telephone to her parents. When he returned to his car the girls had fled.

The Gridiron Laboratory

NYTHING that Knute Rockne has to say about football commands attention. The coach of the Notre Dame university teams is one of the great personalities of the game. His store of football knowledge is large and he has the rare faculty of imparting that knowledge to the young athletes who come under his charge. Notre Dame teams do not always win, but they are never lacking in foot-ball intelligence.

"I regard the football field," he says, "as an experimental laboratory where the young man finds himself. On the gridiron he experiments with himself, physically, mentally, spiritually. He learns courage, sportsmanship and respect for an honored opponent, and he develops a little backbone and the will to win."

With Mr. Rockne's comment there will be little disagreement. In nearly every football squad there are two or more players whose ability stands out prominently above that of all the others. They are assured of a place on the varsity team almost as soon as they come under the coach's eye. The others enter the hardest course there is in amateur sports—a grinding, grueling, sweating preparation. They learn to take physical and mental knocks, and to take them with the stoicism of a Spartan. It is in the drill of practice rather than in the battle before a great crowd of spectators that the football player undergoes the experiment to which Mr. Rockne refers.

The Roosevelt Memorial

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, Nov. 12.—Plans for the Roosevelt Memorial took a more definite form when the committee appointed by the association behind the project announced the winner of an architects' competition for a design. John Russell Pope, of New York.

The Roosevelt Memorial Association is composed of those persons who have contributed to the fund for the erection of a monument to the Rough Rider President. They come from every state in the Union and from all over the world, for, regardless of what people thought of him politically, his personal popularity was overwhelming wherever he went. The fact that plans are progressing toward the erection of a monument to him in Washington, then, is likely to strike a popular chord with the people.

The design of the memorial is, however, withheld by the officials of the association. This is necessary in view of the fact that congress must approve the site selected by the association for the erection of the memorial. It will pass upon this question in the next session when the plans will be laid before it.

The winning design was chosen by a committee composed of Dr. Paul Cret, Herbert Adams, and Louis Ayres. It was presented to a meeting of the directors of the association. Those present at the meeting were Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, James R. Garfield, Will H. Hays, Elton B. Hocker, Lawrence Abbott, Arthur Page, Mark Sullivan and Fredman Hagedorn. The competition for the winning design was contested by eight of the best known architects in the United States. Each received $2,000 for his trouble, whether he won or not, while the winner, Mr. Pope, received $20,000.

Since there is no definite information as to the nature of the design to be used, there is some speculation as to what it will be. Officials are silent in the face of the presentation of the plan to congress. The view held by some Washingtonians is that it will be on the order of the Lincoln Memorial, not, to be sure, in its exact design, but following the idea of erecting an edifice of magnificent proportions which will house a statue of Roosevelt.

Here again is a debatable question. The idea of a statue is always considered in memorials but some officials of the Roosevelt association are averse to it. They point out that Washington is filled with statues of national leaders, and, they say, should one be used it must not be an equestrian figure. Here again the preponderance of mounted figures in Washington's circles and parks militates against the use of such a statue. And, say the officials, Roosevelt was something more than a Rough Rider, something more than a soldier, something more than a hunter and outdoor man. He was all these and a statesman, scholar, diplomat, author, and president. Therefore the equestrian figure would not truly depict his personality.

Q. Does a body weigh more at sea level than at an altitude of 1000 feet? E. C. B.

A. The Geological Survey says that according to the law of gravitation the force of attraction varies inversely as the square of the distance. A body therefore, weighs slightly less at an altitude of 1000 feet than it does at sea level.

Q. Who was the chief of staff in the War department in May 1913? W. W. C.

A. Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood.

Q. Does a suction pump actually suck the water up, or does it exhaust the air causing the outside air to force the water up? H. J.

A. The pump exhausts more or less of the air and atmospheric pressure on the surface of the water outside forces the water up to fill the vacuum.

Q. How long is the largest snake ever brought to a zoo in this country? J. H. H.

A. So far as we can ascertain the largest snake exhibited in the New customs of the past, a notable triumph of reason. Completion of the work of that year helps insure future successes in carrying that plan ahead.

Second and equally notable is the agreement of four nations, leading powers of Europe, to compose future differences by conference and arbitration rather than by war, as has long been the rule. That agreement contemplates the end of wars in central and western Europe. The most conservative view of the agreement shows its promise to make war far less probable, a result the world can view with pleasure.

With Mr. Rockne's comment there will be little disagreement. In nearly every football squad there are two or more players whose ability stands out prominently above that of all the others. They are assured of a place on the varsity team almost as soon as they come under the coach's eye. The others enter the hardest course there is in amateur sports—a grinding, grueling, sweating preparation. They learn to take physical and mental knocks, and to take them with the stoicism of a Spartan. It is in the drill of practice rather than in the battle before a great crowd of spectators that the football player undergoes the experiment to which Mr. Rockne refers.

There are few football candidates lacking in "the will to win." Often the poorest member of the scrub team has it in large measure; the gridiron is no place for the nonchalant, care-free player, however much he may be endowed with physical strength and mental cleverness. Great coaches teach players the tricks of football, the art of offense and defense, and in their teaching they develop "the will to win." A well coached team is a team of high morale. That some football stars are in danger of losing their perspective cannot be denied, but for every one who comes through a long opinion of his own importance in the course of training with an exaggerated general scheme of things there are two-score who add to their basic feeling toward "courage, sportsmanship and respect for an honored opponent. The very word gridiron suggests fire, and fire either destroys or purges.

Trend Of The Times

SEVERAL years ago Armistice day brought an end the slaughter that had been under way as the World war was waged in Europe. Because Armistice day brought peace then, the thought of peace is prominent in the picture as nations view Armistice day and give it due observance each year. Many of the outstanding utterances of war days among the allies voiced the hope that wars might be ended that a better method of adjusting differences might be devised. And that hope has been voiced many times in all lands since the first Armistice day silenced the guns along the western front in Europe.

The peace sought by nations and peoples is not the peace that would be accepted at any price, the peace of weakness and the sacrifice of justice, but an honorable peace, such as Christian nations might welcome, a peace with justice, a peace that would mark the triumph of reason over force and the savage spirit in man. And this year Armistice day was observed with the pleasant contemplation that progress toward that sort of peace has been made during the past year. Two steps toward it have been taken, steps that establish precedents and mark the way ahead in the years to come.

A year of payments under the Dawes plan for the nations of Europe has been completed, the first year, therefore the most difficult and the most important when completed. That year marks the start of nations there to make business adjustments of "war problems," a departure from the

GREEN HEIRESS IS BRIDE OF MOORE

Son Of Famous Dinty Moore Weds Hetty Green's Granddaughter.

New York, Nov. 12.—Mary Stafford Green, heiress to a fortune of $100,000,000, the charming and educated 28-year-old granddaughter of the former "Hettie" Green one-time richest woman in the world, has become the bride of "Willie" Moore, 27, one of the most popular figures on Broadway and the son of "Dinty" Moore, New York's famous restaurateur.

The happy young couple are today occupying a sumptuous honeymoon suite, strewn with yellow peonies, at the Waldorf-Astoria.

They slipped away to Greenwich, Conn., on Oct. 16, it became known to-day, and were married before Justice of the Peace Meade.

The romance has surprised and delighted Broadway where "Willie" is a favorite. He was well known as a champion ball room dancer and has received several offers for vaudeville engagements. He turned them down however, to act as manager of his father's place—"Dinty" Moore's famous for 15 years as the resort of New York's theatrical and sporting element. "Dinty" Moore's "cham and cabbage" has been the delight of the visiting "big butter and egg men from the west" and other patrons for years. There was a time when "Dinty's" beer was the best.

The bride is the adopted daughter of "Col." Edward H. R. Green, the only son of the late "Hettie" Green. Hetty Green made her fortune in real estate and banking in New York. She lived frugally in a hallroom bedroom, saved her money and amassed an enormous fortune.

New York, Nov. 12.—Battered from stem to stern, after riding out the most terrific storms in the 30 years experience of her captain, the North German Lloyd liner Bremen, with six casualties among her 614 passengers and many of her crew disabled, crept into port and docked at Hoboken today. Her entire superstructure was damaged.

How to Quickly Limber Up Sore, Stiff, Swollen Joints

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customers to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff, inflamed, pain-tortured joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make creaky, swollen, tormented joints work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is offered through progressive pharmacists to millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering up.

Swollen, twinge, inflamed, stiff, pain-tortured joints are usually caused by rheumatism but whatever the cause Joint-Ease soaks straight in through skin and flesh right down

Many Here Poison Themselves Daily

Carelessness of Modern Living Results in Digestive Disorders, Sick Headache, Gas, Biliousness—Dr. H. S. Thacher's Remarkable Prescription Relieves Many.

A neglected liver can often cause more trouble than a bottle of poison. When the liver is clogged and inactive, it fails to secrete the juices necessary to digestion and elimination. Worst of all, it fails to purify the blood properly. When this happens, annoying symptoms tell you that a state of self-poisoning exists in your body.

Symptoms Lead to Sick Bed

It explains why a sluggish liver is attended by such symptoms as bloatedness, skin eruptions, sourness and gas in a weak, stuporous, loss of appetite, pains in the back and sides, and a host of other digestive difficulties.

When these symptoms lead to the dangerous and expensive sick bed unless corrected in time,

Dr. H. S. Thacher, noted medical practitioner, perfected a wholesome vegetable prescription to keep the liver healthy. It is giving quick relief and renewed strength, energy and vigor to numbers here. This prescription, known pharmaceutically as Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, doesn't cost much to take and contains only ingredients that are known to physician as true corrective and health-building properties.

Notice Quick Difference

Try this great prescription yourself. Notice the quick difference in the way you look, sleep and feel. You will be quickly satisfied, otherwise, there will be no cost.

Mr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is sold and recommended by J. H. Lease Drug Co., Filding's Drug Store, Bolger & French, and all leading druggists.

ITALY IS GRANTED EASY DEBT TERMS

Agreement Is Reached Ten Days After Negotiations Open.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Italy, the third largest war debtor of the United States, came to an agreement here today on terms of settlement, after ten days of intensive negotiations.

An accord was reached which will permit the Italian government to discharge its obligation of more than $2,000,000,000 on terms materially easier than have been granted any other debtor nation; these concessions being necessary because of the admitted weak position occupied by Italy in finance and commerce.

Announcement that an agreement had been reached was made shortly afternoon, following a conference between President Coolidge and members of the American debt commission, which was followed, in turn, by a joint session of the two full commissions.

The actual terms will be announced later this afternoon, as soon as the experts of the two countries can work out the figures involved in the huge undertaking.

While treasury officials declined to answer specific questions dealing with the terms, in advance of the official statement, it is understood that Italy has secured what amounts to the collection of most of the interest on her original debt of $1,647,000,000. The accrued interest on this for seven years it has run thus far is sufficient to bring the debt up to $2,138,000,000.

Fight Blue Laws

MRS. MARION URBANSKI
& MISS AGNES C. JONES

Cincinnati, Nov. 12.—Two girls are dead today and 23 children were injured when a truck bearing 37 school children on their way to the Champion Soccer football game of the year yesterday afternoon sped down a hill on Montana ave. into West Flock rd. near Westwood.

Eight of the injured children are in a serious condition. The dead are:

Eleanor Mojtasched, 12 years old, internal injuries; Anna Cook, 11 years old, skull fractured.

The driver of the truck, David Smith, 26, intending to shift gears had put the truck out of gear inadvertently and the heavy vehicle rushed down the steep hill road with ever-increasing velocity to a dangerous curve ahead where the truck shot over the road and down a 30 foot embankment, to splinter itself against a concrete abutment below, facing a small creek.

Meanwhile the Soccer team and another truck load of children from the Harrison High school both of which were ahead of the runaway truck, rode joyfully into Cummins-ville, where the Harrison and Reading teams were to battle for the Soccer championship unaware of the terrible fate of their schoolmates.

The Toughest Old COUGH
Can Now Be Stopped

Lingering coughs—the kind that hang on and hang on and rob a man of his sleep—the kind that makes him peevish and all worn out.

These are the breed of coughs that prove that common cough syrups are about as useful as a bottle of ginger beer.

The quickest and surest way to get rid of a persistent cough is to take a teaspoonful of Bronchial Emulsion four times a day.

It's made to stop the old-timers—the tough ones—and it does it without any loss of time.

And remember, there is no chloroform—no sugar—no dope in this brand cough medicine. It's a prescription for stubborn coughs and that's the kind it speedily conquers.

For ordinary coughs one or two doses is usually enough. The J. D. Lease Drug Co., Flodin's drug store, Bofer & French and dealers everywhere can supply you.

Does Winter Fill You With Dread?

Better Get Rid of Your Rheumatic Pains and Twinges—NOW

James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes st., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of ceaseless study that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he calls ALLENRHU, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Flodin's drug store, Bofer & French and druggists everywhere to dispense ALLENRHU with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

Aged Woman Struck By Auto Is Killed

Youngstown, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Mary J. Watkins, 83, was killed Wednesday when knocked to the pavement by an automobile driven by Kenneth Cover, 19, of the Early rd. The woman narrowly escaped being struck by a machine driven by Councilman Web Lentz, immediately preceding Cover's car.

Oldtime Pocketbooks

Under Charles II of England purses were supplanted by flap-pockets, which were worn over the hips, and ladies favored quilted pockets which were perfumed. Years later, purses of netting again came into vogue, and were carried by men and women alike, even to the days of our grandparents. These were displaced once more by small, book-like cases made with several divisions, to each of which the coinage of the day was regulated—gold in one, silver in another, and bronze or copper in a third. When banknotes and bills became common the shape of the purse was modified. It was made larger, had more compartments, and became card case and purse combined, or what we know as the modern pocketbook.

Breaks Right Leg
Bill Tuiches is confined in the City hospital suffering from a broken right leg. The accident occurred about 5 p.m. Wednesday on Main st. in front of the Ohio restaurant. It is thought that when Mr. Tuiches went to step on the curbstone he slipped and his leg turned in such a manner that it struck the fire plug, which is located in front of the restaurant.

Fireman Melville and Yarwood were just returning from the football game when the accident had occurred. They took him in their machine to the City hospital where an X-ray showed a bad break.

Mr. Tuiches is employed as cook in the Ohio restaurant.

STRUTHERS HOLDS SCHAFERS TO 6-6 SCORE

Semi-Finals Better Than Main Bout At Caufield's Show Here

ZILL-MACK FIASCO ENDS ABRUPTLY AT START OF SECOND

So-called Knockout Halts Final Clash Of Ring Exhibition Here.

KINDLER-HARTMAN CLASH IS LIVELY

Three Preliminaries Also Develop Plenty Of Action For Fans.

If the so-called main bout had been eliminated, the fans might have said that Promoter Charles Caufield offered them a good boxing card at the Memorial building Wednesday night. Jimmy Zill, Toledo, scheduled to go ten rounds with Jimmy Zill, Youngstown was injured in knockout a few nights ago, the announcer informed the crowd, and Connie Mack of Youngstown was substituted.

There was one round of sparring. The second round opened with a few exchanges of easy blows and Mack dropped for the count of nine. He reconsidered, apparently, and arose. Zill patted him once or twice and again Mack was on the floor on his face. Referee Al Zill did some unnecessary counting. Then the crowd went home. It wished it had gone about five minutes before.

Semi-Final Is Fact

Up to that time the fans had been satisfied. The preliminaries were lively encounters and the eight-round semi-final proved to be the main bout of the evening. It was a slambang affair between Harry Hartman, Canton, and Al Kindler, Alliance, 145 pound boys who seemed to be trying to settle a grudge.

Kindler easily had the best of the argument, winning the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds and easily holding his own in the others. The Alliance boy gave Hartman plenty of punishment in in-fighting; his short jab wearing down the Canton fighter in the first three rounds.

Kindler went after Hartman from the bell in the fourth and had the latter on the run in the fifth, when he drew first blood. In the sixth Kindler tried hard for a knockout, until he tired himself out and plainly showed fatigue in the seventh. Even before this Hartman was winded and tired from the punishment he accepted and both fighters were swinging wildly and stalling for time in the seventh.

The same thing might be said of the eighth, when both were wild, went into clinches repeatedly and held on until ordered to break. Although the bout slowed up toward the finish, both boys gave their best. Hartman sticking it out while Kindler vainly tried to find a vital spot and end the bout before the bell sounded.

Three Preliminaries

The evening's program opened with the appearance of two midgets—Young Dempsey and Tiger Flowers, the latter of darker hue. They were a snappy little pair, game to the finish and ready to mix it up. A draw would be fair to both.

Then came a four-round tilt between Kid Corsey, Canton, and Frisco, Kid, Barberton, at 112 pounds. The Canton lad had the advantage in the opening round. Frisco Kid came back long enough to claim a draw in the second but he became groggy in the third after Corsey had left-handed him into the ropes three times. That southpaw did valiant work in the fourth, which easily gave Corsey the match.

Young Reagon, Massillon bantam, made his third appearance in a Salem ring by facing Joe Corsey, Canton, at catch weights. This was another of three grudge affairs which might easily be called a draw. Reagon fought like a wildcat in every round, taking the fourth after Corsey had scored in the third. The other rounds were fairly even, both boys mixing it freely.

Just before the final bout Alva Miller of Youngstown was introduced with the challenge to meet any 122 to 125 pounder at any time. It wasn't long until Jimmy Perry, Alliance boy who has many friends here, stepped into the ring to be introduced, and there was an intimation that he might accept Miller's dare.

DARTMOUTH CREW GIVING CHICAGO NO LITTLE WORRY

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Dartmouth's highly touted offense, particularly the over-head part of it, is the cause of no little concern on the Midway.

Mars has a year of 687 days.

Although the bout slowed up toward the finish, both boys gave their best. Hartman sticking it out while Kindler vainly tried to find a vital spot and end the bout before the bell sounded.

Three Preliminaries

The evening's program opened with the appearance of two midgets—Young Dempsey and Tiger Flowers, the latter of darker hue. They were a snappy little pair, game to the finish and ready to mix it up. A draw would be fair to both.

Then came a four-round tilt between Kid Corsey, Canton, and Frisco, Kid, Barberton, at 112 pounds. The Canton lad had the advantage in the opening round. Frisco Kid came back long enough to claim a draw in the second but he became groggy in the third after Corsey had left-handed him into the ropes three times. That southpaw did valiant work in the fourth, which easily gave Corsey the match.

Young Reagon, Massillon bantam, made his third appearance in a Salem ring by facing Joe Corsey, Canton, at catch weights. This was another of three grudge affairs which might easily be called a draw. Reagon fought like a wildcat in every round, taking the fourth after Corsey had scored in the third. The other rounds were fairly even, both boys mixing it freely.

Just before the final bout Alva Miller of Youngstown was introduced with the challenge to meet any 122 to 125 pounder at any time. It wasn't long until Jimmy Perry, Alliance boy who has many friends here, stepped into the ring to be introduced, and there was an intimation that he might accept Miller's dare.

DARTMOUTH CREW GIVING CHICAGO NO LITTLE WORRY

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Dartmouth's highly touted offense, particularly the over-head part of it, is the cause of no little concern on the Midway.

Mars has a year of 687 days.

Up to that time the fans had been satisfied. The preliminaries were lively encounters and the eight-round semi-final proved to be the main bout of the evening. It was a slambang affair between Harry Hartman, Canton, and Al Kindler, Alliance, 145 pound boys who seemed to be trying to settle a grudge.

Kindler easily had the best of the argument, winning the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds and easily holding his own in the others. The Alliance boy gave Hartman plenty of punishment in in-fighting; his short jab wearing down the Canton fighter in the first three rounds.

Kindler went after Hartman from the bell in the fourth and had the lat-

DENIES TRADES INVOLVING WARD, PIPP AND GEHRIG

New York, Nov. 12.—Having returned from a hunting trip in Canada, Edward G. Barrow, business manager of the New York Yankees, today added his denial to the report that Wally Pipp and Aaron Ward, Yankee infielders, would be traded to the Cleveland Indians for Outfielder Charley Jamison. The Yankees do not need outfields, Barrow said.

He also denied that Lou Gehrig and a pitcher would be traded to the Senators for Joe Judge and added that he had no knowledge of the reported attempt of the Yankees to obtain Emory Rigney, shortstop of the Detroit Tigers.

PROSPECTS FOR MANDELL-FERRIS FIGHT BRIGHTER

New York, Nov. 12.—Prospects that Sid Terris and Sammy Mandell, leading lightweight championship contenders, would appear on the Christmas fund card here, Dec. 23, were considerably brighter today as a result of preliminary negotiations with the managers of the two boxers.

Eddie Kane, speaking for Mandell from Chicago, said the latter would be willing to give Terris another chance provided the terms were satisfactory. Dan Caplin, manager of Terris, also signified his willingness to send his man in for a return bout. Mandell won the first meeting between the pair, who are regarded as the best lightweights in the country.

Georgia And Tech To Clash Saturday

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12.—The greatest that ever assembled to see sports event in the history of the south will witness the kickoff of the Georgia Tech-Georgia University football game Saturday, according to Tech Athletic officials today. All the 32,500 seats in the stands have been sold.

50,000 May See Iowa And California Game

Los Angeles, Nov. 12.—More than 60,000 seats for the football game between Nov. 21 between the University of Southern California eleven and Iowa have been sold. It was announced today. A crowd of about 80,000 is expected and the gate may set a new record at more than $200,000.

Brown today received a copy of resolutions adopted unanimously by the Morrow County Republican executive committee on Nov. 6, urging that he permit the use of his name in the 1926 primary campaign for governor of Ohio as a candidate upon whom all elements of the Republican party can unite and a candidate who would assure a Republican administration for Ohio."

Brown was born and reared in Lincoln township, Morrow county. He did not comment on the committee's action.

Naming Valuable Players

If asked in what country is Mont Blanc, probably 99 out of a 100 would answer Switzerland. The map shows that it is in France.

Then there is the matter of the athletic literature and their masterpieces committed in the name of ex-tomers.

When the second act has come to an end—and the curtain is rung down amid shirring applause—when you mingle outside with the excited throngs in the lobby —have a Camel!

WHEN the thrilling second act of the best show of the year has just come to an end. And the stars have taken their curtain calls in answer to round after round of applause. When you join the crowds outside just as pleased and thrilled as yourself—have a Camel!

For no other friend is so cheerful, so resting between acts as Camel. Camel adds its own romantic glamour to the brightness of memorable occasions. No other cigarette ever made—and kept—so many friends. Camels never tire your taste no matter how liberally or zestfully you smoke them. Camels never leave a cigarette after-taste. All the desire to please, all the skill to serve of the largest tobacco organization in the world, goes into this one cigarette.

So when you leave the theatre pleased and inspired for greater things, when you see life's problems and their solutions clearer—lift the flame and taste the mellowest smoke that ever came from a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The most skilful blenders. The most scientific package. No other cigarette made is like Camels. No finer cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

Would Regulate World Series Bleachers

Screens To Protect Low Bleacher Fences Also May Be Demanded At Meeting Of Major Leagues Next Month.

By DAVID J. WALSH

New York, Nov. 11.—There will be no more slight-of-hand home runs over trick fences during the world series, according to information that reached the writer today. Neither will there be further controversies, such as followed Sam Rice's catch off Earl Smith in the third game at Washington this year.

Judge Landis has called the joint meeting of the major leagues for December 10 in New York and a hint is that legislation will be enacted then that will force presidents of contending clubs in the world series to protect all low bleacher fences with wire screens, such as Barney Dreyfuss did in Pittsburgh this year. Barney, in fact, is said to be the man behind this project.

He set a worthy precedent in the 1925 series and is said to have most of the club owners behind him. However, Mr. Dreyfuss' field plans were not letter perfect, either. One of his temporary stands cut too far into the playing space in right field, another encroached dangerously near the foul line in left field and one section of his wire screen near the left field line was lower than the rest of the barrier.

Limit For Stands

It was over this that Eddie Moore hit his homer that won the sixth game. It was against the other section to relieve the financial crisis impending in county affairs in various parts of Ohio loomed here today.

Officials of the state tax commission have been informed that county auditors and other members of budget commissions of Allen, Montgomery, Belmont, Clark, Coshocton and possibly other counties contemplate requesting the legislators to reconvene for this purpose.

In probably 40 counties no funds will be available after January 1 next with which to pay operating expenses of the county government. It was stated.

This situation is attributed to enactment by the last legislature of the Dodd law, fixing tax rate limitations for city and school districts and requiring that interest and sinking funds be first taken care of, and the 154 games schedule will be preserved. Merely a loss of rain, hail, sleet, pneumonia and what not to the customers.

LAST MINUTE DASH ROBS SALEM GRID TEAM OF VICTORY

Visitors Open Up Barrage That Catches Salem Boys Napping.

FIRST TOUCHDOWN IN SECOND PERIOD

Schafers Outplay Visitors Most Of Way; Attempted Kick Falls Short.

Outplaying Struthers in almost every angle of the game but caught off their guard in the final period by a dazzling aerial attack, the Schafers Billiards were forced to content themselves with a 6-6 the Wednesday afternoon. The game was played before the largest crowd that has assembled this year at Reilly field.

Exchange of personalities somewhat marred the exhibition. Three Struthers and one Salem man were banished from the field by Referee Nickel for conduct unbecoming football players. However, with the exception noted, the bleachers were entertained with a first class display of gridiron lore.

Salem's score came in the second period after Dick Weaver snatched a well delivered pass that Quarterback Jones sent towards him. In the try for goal Jones' pass to Sartick went awry and Salem lost its big opportunity to win the game at this time.

Last Minute Score

Struthers' touchdown came in the last minute of play after the visitors had let loose a barrage that caught the locals napping. Jones caught a pass from Johnson at this time and managed to clear the final line with the pike in his arms before he could be brought to earth.

The contest was bitterly fought throughout. The second half was decided improvement over the initial frame as both teams failed to find themselves until the third quarter was underway.

Salem had an excellent opportunity to score in the second period when Al Sartick landed on a Struthers' fumble near the 20-yard line. The necessary scoring punch, however, was not forthcoming and Salem soon lost the ball again to Struthers who went to safety.

This same period witnessed an attempted place kick by Captain Haynes of the Schafers which fell short of the uprights by some half dozen feet or more.

Here is the lineup:

"LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY" made a tour of the Los Angeles streets recently, accompanied by her "gang." She was on "location" and needed traffic congestion for the final fade out of her new United Artists Corporation picture now at the State. She found it for when "The World's Sweet Heart" clad in a bewitching organdy frock and wearing a floppy big hat was recognized atop of the big truck, there was all the traffic congestion that even William Beaudine, her director could desire.

Indeed, Mary had a parade all her own. Once she was discovered almost the entire populace fell into line, knowing that "truck-shots" have to end somewhere and that if they were patient, they were apt to see Mary in action at close range and not hedged about by difficult gateways and tiresome studio restrictions.

Accompanied by her admirers, after a tour of the business section, the company invaded the wholesale district. There at Second and Alameda sts., to the vast amusement of the crowds, Miss Pickford, perched high on Joe Kelly's truck, tapped high and again to the floor of the truck backward with her tiny feet waving helplessly in the air toward the camera. She enjoyed the fun herself merrily and repeated the stunt until the cameramen and director expressed themselves as satisfied in spite of the impromptu audience's evident desire for an encore.

SHE WOLVES

"She Wolves," the William Fox screen version of the stage play, "The Man in Evening Clothes," which opens today at the Grand theater, reverses the popular theory of motion picture plots. In this romantic drama of Paris night life it is the man who sacrifices for the selfish woman. But the woman finally proves herself a thoroughbred.

With a splendid cast headed by Alma Rubens, this picture offers a fine evening's entertainment. It has an unusual story that gives Miss Rubens an opportunity to play the astute lady, who later rises to great emotional heights. Miss Rubens does some of the best work of her career in this picture.

The handsome Jack Mulhall admirably fits the part of Lucien D'Artois, Miss Rubens' husband. Excellent use is made of his comedy openings by Harry Myers, who starred in "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

In the role of Celeste, a demondaine of Montmartre, who heads the pack of "She Wolves," Diana Miller employs her luminous eyes effectively. Judy King is bewitching as Fox Trot, a girl of the cafes.

Against picturesque Parisian background, Director Maurice Elvey has made a moving photoplay, full of fine dramatic moments, in addition to the featured players. The cast includes Bertie Grassby, Fred Warren, Josef Swickard, Helen Danor and Charles Clary.

SIDE PAINED HER TERRIBLY

After Childbirth Women Should Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Normal Conditions

St. Louis, Missouri.—"After my first child was born I was bothered with a pain in my side which became more severe the longer I let it go. It was terrible. I often had to lie down to get any relief. I was in a weak and run-down condition, and my side seemed to be the point for all the pain. I was this way for three months, then I read your little booklet and the testimonials it contained, and started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I could feel relief after the first bottle and I have found it to do all you claim for it. I had to repeat it again after my second child was born. I sure will recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. N. R. Layton, 2726A University St., St. Louis, Missouri.

If you are suffering from any weakness which causes such symptoms as pains in the side and back and nervous feelings, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial now.

Do not continue to feel all run-down and half sick when relief is at hand. Sold by druggists everywhere.

MOB THREATENS MAN JAILED ON GIRL'S CHARGE

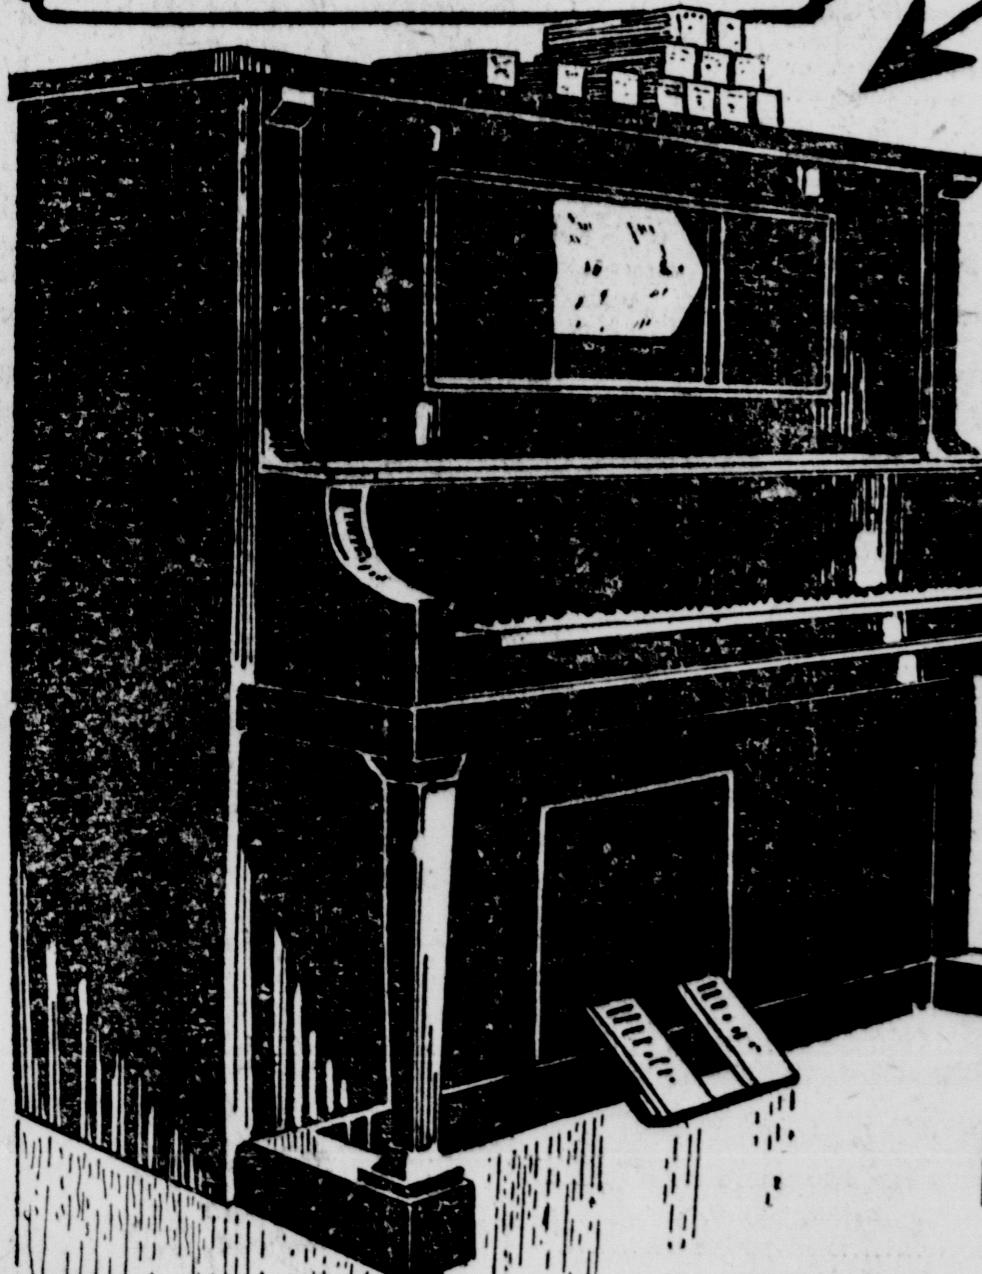

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—Fred Strobel, 33, and married, was guarded in Cuyahoga county jail today while he awaited time for arraignment on a charge brought against him by a 13-year-old girl.

A mob met in the South Euclid town hall last night and threatened to take Strobel away from the law. J. H. Bilkey, South Euclid chief of police, however, took his prisoner out rear door and hurried him to Cleveland to avoid trouble.

The girl's neck was scratched badly during the encounter.

STEEL FINANCING PLAN IS APPROVED

Suffered With Piles For Years

SAYS HAMADALA HAS CURED HIM

312 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

August 15, 1924.

Gentlemen—I have been troubled with piles for twelve or thirteen years and although I consulted several of the best recommended physicians, and used various salves prescribed by them as remedies, I was never able to obtain relief.

The securities will be offered this week for public subscription. Proceeds will be used to pay the company's bank indebtedness. It is likely the financing will bring three new directors to the Trumbull board, and that the company will elect a vice president in charge of operations.

Stockholders criticized directors for alleged dereliction in connection with sums borrowed from the company by Jonathan Warner, former president.

Of this amount about $1,000,000 has been returned through the sale of assets owned by Mr. Warner, in addition to return of common stock held by him.

Yours very truly

APPEALS COURT SESSION CLOSED

One Salem Case Remanded,
Another Continued To Next Term.

Lisbon, Nov. 12.—The November term of the appellate court in this county closed Wednesday afternoon, and the court returned to Akron, where it will consider five cases that have not been disposed of. Records have been forwarded by Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine.

In the case of Charity A. Burnett and Thomas Beabout and others against the City of Wellsville, carried up on appeal, by agreement the action has been continued for settlement.

Judgment has been reversed to sustaining the demurrer and the cause has been remanded, in the action of James E. Evans as administrator against the City of Salem. This case was carried from common pleas to the appellate court on error. Ex-ceptions have been noted.

Two actions that have been continued are those of George C. Cowan against Mary Ingram Bunting, appealed, and that of B. F. Carson against Thomas Cawdwalder of Salem, carried up on error.

In the case of Mary Rebecca Bailes against the Home Savings & Loan Co., carried up on error, the cause has been dismissed from the record on the motion of the plaintiff in error, and at her costs.

By agreement, the case of the City of East Liverpool against William P. Stone, carried up on error, has been continued until the next term of this court.

In the case of Willis O. Hall and others against C. C. Ashbaugh and others of East Liverpool, which has to do with the disposition of the war chest fund of that city, the court has granted the East Liverpool post of the American Legion leave to file supplemental briefs instanter. This action was carried up on appeal.

On a motion filed by the plaintiff in error, the court was dismissed without prejudice the case of Conrad Berg and others, meaning the county commissioners, against Alex Riley and others. This cause had been carried up from common pleas on error.

LEETONIA

The Leetonia Kiwanis club was especially privileged on Tuesday evening at the weekly meeting served by the Priscilla club in St. Paul's Lutheran chapel. The program for the evening was in charge of the "Inner City Relations" committee consisting of F. W. Weidmayer, Dr. Paul H. Beaver and Joseph Woodward.

There were two speakers for the evening, B. J. Ullman and Harold Igo, both of Youngstown and connected with the Youngstown Vindicator. The subject chosen by the speakers was "Publicity in many phases. Both addresses being of superior merit and thoroughly enjoyed by the 55 members present. The attendance prize offered by Charles Stouffer was won by George Woods.

The Kiwanis club has recently assumed all expenses in connection with the operation on two unprivileged children of Leetonia who had their family in Canton.

John Greenamyer, who has been confined to his home about one week following a fall while at his work as carpenter at the Hanna Furnace company's plant, has recovered and is able to be at his work again.

WASHING KNITTED GARMENTS

To dry knitted things without stretching or shrinking them, simply spread a clean cloth in an airy, shady spot, out of doors, or in a fairly warm, airy place in the house. Lay the garments out flat on the cloth, pulling and pushing them into their original shape. It is wise to measure the garment before washing so that it can be dried to the same size and shape.

It is very easy to stretch or shrink yarn while wet, so that a knitted garment hung on a line will be pulled down by the weight of the water held in the yarn. After drying, the garment is not so likely to shrink or stretch, so whatever shape it takes during

LATEST IN STYLE FOR WOMEN

Naris, Nov. 12.—The winter models which are replacing the early autumn ones displayed at the fashion makers in Paris show a distinct return to graceful feminine lines. Severe manish effects are being softened and made more attractive with rich furs and ornaments.

The skirt with the flare, either in godets or the circular flounces is still on top, but the straight lines insist upon a small place in Milady's wardrobe and seem to never say die. The flare is expressed either in godets which are trimmed to show very plainly that they are really godets, or in circular cuts either in flounces or in side seams.

Drecoll is showing the waistline marked over so slightly, while the upper part of the gown gives a tight-fitting effect and the fullness of the skirt falls in graceful lines.

Bischoff's models show the fullness starting from the shoulders at the back and the godets well ornamented. There are some unusual, well-studied embroidery effects in colors like the most delicate shades of old gems or flowers.

Philippe et Gaston carry out the circular movement consistently even to the details of the sleeves. Circular flounces often form the lower part from the elbow down and there are all sorts of flaring pieces to give the impression of width to harmonize with the skirts. However, they do not overlook the tunic that carries the flare to give the effect of increased width, with the foundation dress straight and narrow.

A strong feature of the Redfern collection is a suggestion that the lines of the figure might be more closely followed in designing for the future. Both his dresses and coats have a slight curve in the under-arm seam to indicate the normal waistline. Velvet frocks are made on circular lines with godets throwing the fullness either all to the front or all to the back.

BOMB DROPS INTO ROOM; LIVES OF 12 ARE ENDANGERED

Los Angeles, Nov. 12.—An Armistice day tragedy was narrowly averted when a loaded bomb, dropped from an airplane circling over the city, crashed through a skylight in a downtown building.

The bomb struck in a room where there were 12 persons, but did not explode owing to a defective fuse, according to police.

Whether the bomb came from a military or civilian plane has not been determined.

City officials ordered an investigation.

Crochet Or Knit Christmas Gifts

Now is the time to turn our attention to the making of Christmas presents.

Yokes, laces, edges and insertion for towels, medallions for card table covers and luncheon cloths, collars and cuff sets, bags, hats, and rag rugs are only a few suggestions for crocheted gifts.

Knitted sweaters and scarfs will please adults, while caps, sacques and afghans make acceptable presents for little folks.

With these gift suggestions we offer a booklet on Knitting and Crocheting which contain directions that even a novice can understand. Send for your copy today. Enclose two cents in stamps for return postage.

Frederic J. Haskin, Director, The Salem News Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.

In 1215 Frederick II ordered the body removed from the vault and placed in a casket of gold and silver in which it is preserved in the treasury of the cathedral at the present day. The marble throne on which the dead Charlemagne sat for nearly four hundred years is in the cathedral. Until 1458, it was used as the coronation of the German emperors. The other reliques found in the vault are preserved in Vienna—Emperor Charlemagne.

Preserve Relics of Emperor Charlemagne

A vault in the cathedral of Aix-la-Chapelle in Rhineish Prussia, covered with a marble slab, is inscribed with the words "Carlo Magno." At his death in 814, the Emperor Charlemagne was placed therein in a sitting posture upon a marble throne, dressed in his imperial robes, his crown on his head, scepter in his hand, and the gospels lying open in his lap.

Besides beautifying the hair, a 50 cent bottle of refreshing fragrant "Dandarime" from any drug store will do wonders, particularly if the hair is dry, thin, brittle, faded or streaked with gray from constant curling and waving which burn the color, lustre and very life from any woman's hair.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Cornmeal Pancakes—One cup cornmeal scalloped with one cup boiling water, one egg, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, one cup white flour, milk to make a batter.

Fisherman's Chowder with Bacon—Fry about seven or eight slices of bacon brown and crisp and lay them in the bottom of a kettle, covering them with a layer of raw sliced potatoes then a layer of raw sliced onions, a layer of crackers and then the remainder of the bacon. Add two cups of water, season with salt and pepper and cook slowly until the fish is well done.

Baked Calf's Liver—Wash and wipe dry one calf's liver, then slash and score inside. Have ready a well seasoned bread dressing, using quite a bit of onion. Pack into the liver, then tie with cord or skewer with wooden toothpicks, putting several pieces of bacon over the openings. Put in the baking pan pour over it a little hot water and bake at least an hour in a hot oven, basting frequently. Serve hot garnished with parsley.

Eggplant Straws—Cut an unpeeled eggplant in quarter inch slices, salt each, put them together again and press them under a heavy weight for an hour or more. Cut them into equal lengths a quarter of an inch wide, rejecting the skin; dry in a napkin and roll in flour mixed with the same amount of fine cornmeal and seasoned with salt, pepper and a little nutmeg. Drop a few at a time into hot oil and fry until they are a delicate brown. Dry on soft paper and serve at once. They should be crisp and tender.

SUGGESTIONS

In thickening cream soup allow a tablespoon each of butter and flour to every quart of soup.

Be careful when buying pillow slips to alivc the pillows to slip in easily if you select pillow slips into which pillows must be stuffed they will wear out quickly.

In making stew of either lamb or mutton, choose cuts from the fore quarter. Remove all excess fat, season the meat well and allow sufficient time for cooking, since meat stews should be simmered rather than boiled. Such vegetables as potatoes, carrots and peas may be added to the stew or served with it.

Justice Restricted

A restraining order has been granted by Judge John B. Worley against Justice of the Peace S. S. Weaver of Columbiana from hearing a case tried in that court by one partner against the other.

The action filed in common pleas court is that of Glenn Hawkins against L. A. Chappell of Lorain and Washingtonville and the Letonia Milling Co.

The case is one in equity, and should not have been filed in the lower court by the plaintiff, according to K. L. Cobourn, counsel for the plaintiff. Bond in the case was set at $200 by the court and an action for dissolution has also been filed in connection with this case.

Court Decisions

Judge James G. Moore has granted the application of the council of East Liverpool to transfer $148,67 from its liquor enforcement fund to the East Liverpool Public Library fund.

Since the municipality has no more use for a liquor enforcement fund, because of the provisions of a recently enacted law, it was desired to use any surplus for the payment of improvements to the East Liverpool library building.
